

SAVOR THE RISING WORDS

Third Annual Poetry Broadside Invitational
In honor of National Poetry Month, April 2017

Sponsored by: 49 Writers & Great Harvest Bread Co. Anchorage

Invitation

Members of 49 Writers and past or present participants in 49 Writers workshops are invited to submit poetry broadsides for display at Great Harvest Bread Co. throughout the month of April 2017 in honor of National Poetry Month. Featured poets will be encouraged to read their works during a public event at the bakery on Thursday, April 27, 2017. Broadside in the exhibit will be available for sale and proceeds will be donated to 49 Writers; those not sold will be retained by 49 Writers for future displays or events.

Details: Broadly defined, a poetry broadside combines the words of a poem with visual imagery. Though often printed on a letterpress or in other printmaking media, for purposes of this exhibit we will include any presentation that combines original poetry and original artwork (including photos), in two-dimensional format, on thick paper (at least card stock weight), no greater than 14" x 18" in size. Collaborative poet/artist pieces and collage pieces on canvas or paper are welcome as long as they do not exceed the size limit. Digital submissions may be accepted in standard letter size (8.5" x 11"), legal size (8.5" x 14") or poster size (11" x 17") only, in pdf format.

Deadline EXTENDED: Tuesday, April 4, 2017. Submissions should be well wrapped in an envelope or paper and mailed or delivered by this date to the following address. (Please note: Digital submissions may be accepted if they are laid out and ready to print in pdf format in the dimensions given above. Please send them to middlerockraven@gmail.com.)
